Faculty Borrowers
Program
Borrower Policy: $25.00 individual community borrower; $12.50 alumni; $300 corporate Fine Policy: Maximum overdue fine is $10.00 per item. See also http://www.library.vcu.edu/services/fines.html .
See also http://www.library.vcu.edu/circpriv/graceperiods.html for information on grace periods.
Lost Books: Books are declared lost 42 days after the due date. Standard replacement fee is a minimum of $70.00. May charge higher if cost is higher.

Will issue a refund except for the $10.00 overdue fine. No time frame. This is the same for all borrowers.
Damaged Books: Minimum charge of $10 for damage beyond normal wear and tear.
User charged cost to repair book or minimum $70 replacement fee if it cannot be repaired.
Reserve Policy: Fines are $1 per hour or portion of an hour. Minimum overdue fine is $1 and the maximum overdue fine is $10.00. The minimum replacement fee is $70.
"Frequent Delinquents:" University hold is placed on record 42 days after item is due. If not cleared, the account is referred to VCU Collections, where it is placed on a Debt Set-Off Program which will collect library fines from the patrons financial aid, income state returns, etc.
The patron is finally sent to a collection agency 2 years later if the item has not been returned nor fines paid.
Suggestions for Collecting from High School Students: Agreements with high schools - high schools are held responsible for lost and damaged materials. Before a high school patron receives borrowing privileges, a registration form (signed by student, guardian and high school representative) is submitted to the library. All lost and unpaid fines are sent to the attention of the high school representative rather than the student.
Suggestions for Collecting from Community Borrowers: Sent to VCU Collections Debt Set-Off Program and to a collection agency two years later. They will collect money owed the library from state income taxes, lottery winnings, etc.
Amnesty Day: No
