

Around the World through Books 2005
"Celebrating Our Differences and Similarities"
Book Discussion

The Book Subcommittee of the J. Sargeant Reynolds Community College Diversity Committee cordially invites you to join us for an evening of stimulating conversation.

When: Thursday, Feb. 24, 7:00-8:30 pm
Where: Borders Books & Music, 9750 West Broad Street, Glen Allen, VA
Book: The Lone Ranger and Tonto Fistfight in Heaven
Author: Sherman Alexie
Leader: Maria Ramos

About the Book:

"The Lone Ranger and Tonto Fistfight offers a darkly humorous and unflinching look at life on the Spokane Indian Reservation. Alexie shows us both the material circumstances of that life, the historical plight that placed the Indians there, and the emotional consequences of a people cut off from their traditions in a modern world in which it is nearly impossible to assimilate." - HarperAcademic.com

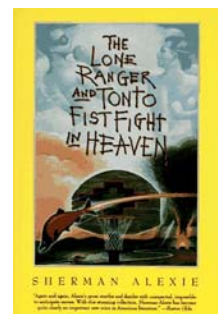

Around the World through Books 2005
"Celebrating Our Differences and Similarities"
Book Discussion

The Book Subcommittee of the J. Sargeant Reynolds Community College Diversity Committee cordially invites you to join us for an evening of stimulating conversation.

When: Thursday, Feb. 24, 7:00-8:30 pm
Where: Borders Books & Music, 9750 West Broad Street, Glen Allen, VA
Book: The Lone Ranger and Tonto Fistfight in Heaven
Author: Sherman Alexie
Leader: Maria Ramos

About the Book:

"The Lone Ranger and Tonto Fistfight offers a darkly humorous and unflinching look at life on the Spokane Indian Reservation. Alexie shows us both the material circumstances of that life, the historical plight that placed the Indians there, and the emotional consequences of a people cut off from their traditions in a modern world in which it is nearly impossible to assimilate." - HarperAcademic.com

