

J. Sargeant Reynolds Community College Libraries

Your first stop for information and research needs!

ITE-115 – Information Literacy Assessment – Module 3

Name: _____

Date: _____

1. Google and Wikipedia carry the same authority as licensed library databases because articles go through a review process before they are published on the open Web. (Select one)
 - a. True
 - b. False
2. I can still use information found through Google for my research as long as I evaluate the information and determine that it is accurate and from a credible source. (Select one)
 - a. True
 - b. False
3. Google searches the entire web. (Select one)
 - a. True
 - b. False
4. Match the institution with its web site address domain suffix:

| | | |
|----------------------------|-------|------|
| a. Government agency | _____ | .org |
| b. College or University | _____ | .com |
| c. Non-profit organization | _____ | .gov |
| d. For-profit company | _____ | .edu |
5. Most web sites found on the open web provide a citation tool for citing sources. (Select one)
 - a. True
 - b. False
6. Once you have a link for a web page you found through Google, you can always go back to the site to review the information. (Select one)
 - a. True
 - b. False
7. The search capabilities of most library databases allow users to search for and retrieve more focused and relevant results than the search capabilities available through search engines like Google. (Select one)
 - a. True
 - b. False

8. The JSRCC Library databases can be accessed through Google. (Select one)
- a. True
 - b. False
9. Google is a great source for finding current news stories, government documents, statistics, company information and opinions on various issues. (Select one)
- a. True
 - b. False
10. Material found in library databases is evaluated for accuracy and credibility by subject experts and publishers. (Select one)
- a. True
 - b. False