How Soccer Explains the World:

An Unlikely Theory of Globalization

Lipman Auditorium,
Massey Library Technology Center,
Parham Road Campus

By Franklin Foer

Thursday, February 11, 2010
7 p.m. - 8:30 p.m.

Discussion led by JSRCC faculty member Jena Morrison

"...in Europe, South America, and elsewhere, soccer is not merely a pastime but often an expression of the social, economic, political, and racial composition of the communities that host both the teams and their throngs of enthusiastic fans.... Foer draws the reader into these sport-mad societies..."
